HIS LAST WISH.

The father of a family lay dying in his bed; His children gathered round him, and his dear wife bowed her head, And his servants came and listened for the words that he might say: Before his soul should take its flight and leave his mortal clay, And he whispered, "I am going, and I'll see you here no more, But I'll try—and stay—here with you—till you find out what's the score."

DARKNESS EXPLAINED

Cause of the Arc Lights Not Being in Use Last Night

The main driving belt at the Electric Plant, having become slack, has been slipping on pulleys recently, necessitating its being taken up.

Yesterday morning the belt was taken apart, slack taken out and the joint cemented together again.

It was expected the cement would have set and dried by evening, allowing the belt to be used last night.

Upon taking off the clamps in the evening, however, it was discovered that the joint had not dried sufficiently to permit the belt being used.

This prevented the running of the large lighting generator and was responsible for street arcs being out last night.

Why is EASY TASK soap so popular? Most housewives claim that it does better work and more of it with less labor than any yellow soap in the market. There must be a reason for this preference by women who have used EASY TASK. Wouldn't it be worth your while to try and find out? You can make the experiment for 5c. Ask any grocer.

The Steamboats Again Landing at Aberdeen, After a Rate War

After giving the town the go-by for several months, owing to the high wharfage exacted by the town authorities, the steamboats plying on this division of the Ohio are again landing at Aberdeen.

A Committee from the town authorities met in conference with the boat owners, the matter was satisfactorily adjusted, and all is lovely once more in the little Ohio town.

DEED RECORDED

Green River Tobacco Company Sells Property to Syndicate

The good old city of Maysville still continues to move forward in its march of progress and upbuilding.

Yesterday a deal was consummated that carries with it great things for this city.

THE LEDGER has been in possession of the main features of the transaction for several days, but refrained giving it to its readers until the transfer had actually been made and the sale completed.

Last afternoon, in consideration of $70,000, cash in hand, the Green River Tobacco Company of this city sold and conveyed by deed its immense plant in Bank street to a syndicate of capitalists, the new concern to be styled The Weissinger Tobacco Company.

The sale includes all the Green River Tobacco Co.'s estate and property, real, personal and mixed.

The new Company controls unlimited capital and it is the intention of the firm to make it the largest manufacturing tobacco plant in the country.

New machinery will be installed, the force largely increased and an output of over a million pounds of manufactured product made annually.

It bids fair to be the biggest industry in the city.

With the recent addition of the American Tobacco Company, the Pulley Works and other manufacturing industries, the city is going forward in the right direction.

CALEB POWERS

Order by Judge Cochran to Remove Prisoner to Newport

The convening of the United States District Court in this city yesterday created widespread interest and attracted a brilliant array of legal talent and prominent men from abroad.

The Courthouse was filled with deeply interested spectators, quite a number of ladies being among the number, who gave strict attention throughout the proceedings.

After Judge Cochran had rendered his decision, Hon. Charles J. Bronston, representing the Commonwealth, made application for an appeal to the United States Supreme Court, which was granted by Judge Cochran, and Mr. Arthur Goebel and Mr. Bronston accepted as bond on the petition.

Judge J. C. Sims of Paris made a motion that the Court fix a time to hear a motion for bail. The Court did not think it advisable to pass upon the motion until the case of jurisdiction was fully settled.

Judge Cochran then ordered that the prisoner be transferred from the Georgetown to the Newport Jail for safe keeping, which order was placed in the hands of Deputy United States Marshal Sharp for execution.

Among notables present and not mentioned in yesterday's LEDGER were William Melb. Shaw, Circuit Court Judge of Kenton county; J. C. Fennell of Covington and Steven Sharp, United States Marshal; E. R. Young, Ripley; John F. Pogue and E. J. Rosenthal, Cincinnati, and A. P. Humphrey, Louisville.

Deafness cannot be cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; whereas, if treated by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

WHY?

Why are the good cooks getting so scarce in Maysville?

Because so many of them have gone and are going every day or so to Cincinnati, Dayton, Washington, C. H. and other Ohio towns. Why do these good cooks leave Maysville to go to Cincinnati and other towns mentioned?

Because they get more money for less work.

How is it that one woman can do all the cooking and house work, and even laundering, too, at these other places and yet be said to do less work than she would have to do just cooking alone in Maysville?

Because cooking with Gas removes all the burden of kitchen labor, saves half the time, and leaves the cook fresh and able to do the other lighter housework, and even the laundering where Gas is used for that purpose also.

What would you do if you were the cook?

Go away like the rest of them. It is a practical proposition. If you want to keep your cook put yourself on an equal footing with your neighbors

THE Chicago Grand Jury struck "pay dirt" when it discovered that the Honorable CONNOR P. SHEA, President of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, was sharing in the blackmail levied on business men. Within one week SHEA had sent to his wife at Boston $3,000 of this "blood money." "Concluding its report as to the Honorable Mister SHEA the Grand Jury says—

"That by this act SHEA's conservatism and thrift is shown to be exceptional, when it is known that his only source of income is derived from his office as President of the Teamsters Union, which pays him $150 a month in a salary, and in the event of a strike $2.50 a day for his individual expenses.

"That not alone SHEA, but HUGH MCGHEE, JAMES BARRY, EDWARD MULLEN, JOHN GALLAGHER, JEREMIAH MCCARTHY and ALBERT YOUNG and other and lesser satellites in the labor world have lived on the fat of the land spending more money in dissipation than many an honest member of the Labor Union is able to earn for the support of his wife and family, has been established beyond question."

The Cincinnati Times-Star says all records for immigration promise to be broken during June, just as this year promises to see the greatest immigration this country has ever had. More than 72,000 immigrants have landed at Ellis Island since June 1st, and the official estimate for the entire month is 84,000, against nearly 52,000 for the same month last year. The official estimate for the fiscal year ending June 30th is 1,062,000, the previous high mark having been 857,046, for the year ending June 30th.

It costs money to live in South Africa. A woman resident in Johannesburg pays $50 a month for her cook and $35 a month to a Hindu servant. In India she would have had to pay only $5 a month for the Hindu's services.

It is estimated that to collect one pound of honey from clover 62,000,000 heads of clover must be deprived of nectar and 2,750,000 visits from the bees must be made.

1903. For the fiscal year 1904 the figures were 812,870.

It can require no more than a brief study of these statistics to reveal that the immigration problem is one of the most serious before the Nation, meaning, as it does, the absorption beyond our powers of assimilation of persons entirely unfamiliar with our system of Government. Especially is this true when it is generally admitted that, as a whole, the character of the present immigration is much inferior to that of the past. There are, actually and relatively, fewer people than heretofore from Germany, Scandinavia and the British Isles, while the hordes of Eastern and Southern Europe continue to pour in, to swell the already overcrowded foreign quarters in the great cities.

No law can be sanctioned which will keep out of this country a single good and worthy immigrant, no matter what may be his nationality; but this National desire should not permit the unloading upon us of the dregs of an inferior civilization. The immigrant of today is not as the immigrant of yesterday. The latter was a man to be welcomed most cordially. He and his sons have done their part in building up this Nation, many of our worthiest and greatest men are the adopted sons of the Nation. It is to be regretted that this character of immigration has in any measure ceased, especially now that we are imperiling the future with a class largely unfit, and who may become not alone a burden, but a menace.

SANITARY SAFEGUARDS

As to Plumbing, Heating and Ventilating Systems

Science and Mechanical Skill Now Co-operate

[BY BENEDICT BURN.]

Comparatively few persons bestow proper careful consideration to the vitally important matter of sanitary plumbing, also including heating of premises, sewerage, ventilation and general house cleanliness. With the heated term of summer on full tap it is certainly a matter for timely and individual action. It is pleasant to record, however, that many prudent, sagacious, practical people all over this country and intelligent medical practitioners are rapidly awakening to the strong necessity for really careful consideration of sanitation principles, and to all such it becomes readily apparent that the trinity of plumbing, sewerage and heating are the foundation factors which sustain the general burden.

The sensible, thinking individual, desiring with laudable pride to be the possessor of a MODEL HOME, or remodeling premises to this wise end, bestows his chief concern as to water conveniences and heating system.

There is no quibbling at expense, as he knows full well that for well executed installation reasonable prices must be paid.

He is looking for the after results.

Cheapness is not based on what you pay, but on what you get for what you pay.

A good mechanical concern which has gained enviable standing will never impair the work to cheapen results.

This would simply be "business suicide," as craft reputation is slowly earned by ever and always accomplishing superior performance.

Passing back directly to sanitary plumbing, heating and sewerage, and to a capital representation of these activities, leads to the whose steam power workrooms and office are located corner of Second and Bridge streets.

While these premises are somewhat apart from the general trade center, Mr. Traxel built and removed thither that he might have manufacturing quarters and storage facilities more ample than possible in the trade center.

Here he has every ponderous machine, lathe and appliance necessary to turning out any and all special articles of construction.

Everyone about to build, contemplating remodeling defects or improving present premises should visit this splendidly equipped depot.

He will cheerfully furnish plans, estimates or specifications, whether for a small job or big contract, and equal undeviating care attends in either case.

Mr. Traxel is well versed in all the different methods of installation.

Added proof of his original

is evinced by his own patented device, "Traxel's Patent Safety Appliance," which entirely overcomes the ever-existing menace when attached to a kitchen range; i. e., explosion of the hot water reservoir or water-back.

The numerous deaths and fatalities which occurred last winter alone in different portions of the country indicate the imperative need for this safeguard upon every range in use.

The most watchful, careful individual is the one who will most readily admit and quickest procure this infallible safeguard.

Solidly constructed of brass, it cannot wear or rust out and will last a life time.

It cannot get out of order, is comparatively inexpensive and is easily applied.

Mr. Traxel has received many very appreciative endorsements, especially from practical craft sources and mechanical journals.

He is himself too closely tied in trade affairs to devote requisite outside attention to this ingenious patent, and proposes therefore to dispose of an interest therein, offering a rare opportunity for some man of good business parts and a reasonable amount of means to associate with him in its manufacture and development.

Its practical utility and wide assured market ahead renders it a certainty as to yielding large and steady returns.

An illustrated descriptive circular minutely details the principles and merits of this marvel of mechanical ingenuity, which he will be pleased to mail to all interested parties on application.

It is in order here to note that here can be procured

"TRAXEL'S SAFETY STEEL RANGE," a splendid modern production, embodying all the main points possessed by the most noted ranges and having several special conveniences peculiarly its own.

Each of these ranges is fitted with "Traxel's Patent Safety Appliance," included without extra cost.

Mr. Traxel, after a critical examination of many ranges, selected this production as most perfectly combining all the latest essentials of convenience and ever-lasting durability as to construction, having fully in mind the utmost high-class excellence, as not alone was his name to be indelibly implanted thereon, but also he had to pit the same against all other competitors in this market.

Furthermore, the plant turning out this splendid production was competing with all rivals on its assured new special points of merit and at vantage prices to buyers to insure a ready appreciative market, and thus buyers can procure this grand production, safety appliance included, at considerable less than exacted for other productions.

Economical buyers are cited to a critical inspection of Traxel's Safety Steel Ranges.

IN CONCLUSION

In all pertaining to plumbing, sewerage, heating and gas lighting, whether you reside hard-by or distant from Maysville, better advice cannot be tendered than to call in person or mail inquiries to the George H. Traxel Manufacturing Company, Maysville, Kentucky.

Same will receive prompt attention.

Estimates and prices on application.

Governor Beckham Orders Investigation of Insurance Rates

In a letter addressed to State Commissioner Henry R. Prewitt Thursday, Governor Beckham says that numerous complaints have come to him about the rates charged by fire insurance companies upon property insured in Kentucky, that the rates are out of proportion to the losses in the state, and considerably higher than the same companies charge in adjoining and other states.

The Governor says that if such is the case something must be done to correct it, and he requests the Commissioner to make investigation to the end that if present laws are not sufficient the matter may be laid before the General Assembly at the approaching session and recommendations made as to needed changes in the Statutes.

One Dollar Saved Represents Ten Dollars Earned.

The average man does not save to exceed 10% of his earnings. He must spend 90% in living expenses for every dollar saved. That being the case he cannot be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden, will save several dollars outlay later on. It is the same in buying Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It costs but a few cents, and a bottle of it in the house often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars. For sale by all Druggists.

STATE COLLEGE of Kentucky, Lexington, Ky.
The Agricultural and Mechanical (State College) of Kentucky offers the following courses of study, viz: Agricultural, Horticultural, Chemical, Biological, Mathematical, Physical, Normal School, Classical, Mechanical Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Civil Engineering and Mining Engineering, each of which extends over four years and leads to a degree. Post-graduate studies are also provided, leading to a master's degree. Each course of study is organized under a separate faculty. The general faculty numbers nearly fifty Professors and Instructors. County appointees receive free tuition, room rent in dormitories, fuel and light, and if they remain ten months traveling expenses. The laboratories and museums are large, well equipped, comprehensive and modern. The Legislature appropriated $60,000 for a college home for young women and $30,000 for drill hall and gymnasium for men. Both buildings are completed and in use. Military tactics and science are fully provided for as required by Congress. Graduates from the several courses of study readily find excellent positions and liberal remuneration. The demand is largely in excess of the ability of the College to supply. Specialists with the necessary number of assistants have charge of each department of natural science. Summer schools are provided for pedagogy, engineering, instruction in science and in arts. The State College of Kentucky, though bearing hitherto the title of "college," is the only institution in the Commonwealth doing, in any proper sense, university work. The completion of the College Home for Young Women provides facilities for good board and lodging. It is equipped with all modern conveniences, including bathrooms and rooms for physical culture. It is heated by steam and lighted by electricity. An opportunity is thus afforded to young women of obtaining a thorough education in classical, modern languages, literature, science, mathematics, logic, metaphysics, history and political economy. No other institution in the state offers as good an opportunity for education of women at all comparable to those offered by the State College of Kentucky. For catalogues, method of obtaining appointments, information regarding courses of study and terms of admission, apply to JAMES K. PATTERSON, PH.D., LL. Or to D. C. Frazee, Business Agent, Lexington, Ky. Fall term begins September 14th, 1905.
